

MAHER WEARY OF LIFE.

IRISH PUGILIST ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

In a Fit of Despondency Over His Recent Defeat by Fitzsimmons He Tried to Jump From a Flying Train.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 5.—[Special.]—Peter Maher, the Irish pugilist, tried to commit suicide ten miles from Charlotte to-night. He, Fitzsimmons, and a party of ten were on the vestibule returning from the fight at New Orleans. They occupied the state-room. Maher was sitting next to the window and while the train was going at its greatest speed Maher attempted to jump out of the window.

Fitzsimmons and another of the party caught him and with difficulty prevented his mad attempt to kill himself.

He was taken in charge by physicians on board and given an opiate, which put him to sleep. When the party passed through this city he was sleeping.

The effort to kill himself was caused by despondency over his recent defeat.

THE GREAT JOHN L. TALKS.

Tired of Bombast and Says His Challenging Must Now Put Up or Shut Up.

St. Paul, Minn., March 5.—The following was published here to-day:

St. Paul, Minn., March 5th.

On the 25th of August, 1891, I formed a partnership with Duncan C. Harrison and entered the theatrical profession. We made contracts covering two continuous years, including a trip to Australia. These facts were well known to every body. They have been published throughout the civilized world. I also keep my contracts, a fact also well established by references to my entire career, and ever since the existence of this contract between Mr. Harrison and myself being known, this contract has been overruled by a lot of foreign fighters and also American aspirants for fame and championship honors, who have endeavored to see notoriety and American dollars by challenging me to fight, knowing full well that my hands were tied by contract of honor.

I have been compelled to listen to their bluffs without making reply on account of my obligations, but now my turn has come. My season ends June 1st, and we do not return again until September 1st. This gives me over three months to prepare.

I have been trying to make capital at my expense to fight me either the last week in August this year or the first week in September this year at the Olympic Athletic Club in New Orleans, La., for a purse of $25,000, and an outside bet of $10,000. The existence of the fight to take the entire purse.

I insist upon an outside bet to show that I mean business, $25,000 to be put up inside of thirty days, another $25,000 to be put up on May 1st, and the entire $50,000 and as much more as I wish to be placed on June 1st with the editor of the Advertiser, of New York city, as stakeholder. We are ready to put up the entire $100,000 now. First come first served. I give precedence in this challenge to Frank P. Slavin, of Australia, as his backers have done the greatest amount of blowing.

The second preference is to the bombastic sprinter Charles Mitchell, of England, whom I would rather fight than any man in the world. My third preference is James Corbett, of California, who has beaten all his opponents, but in this challenge I include all fighters who are white. I will not fight a negro; I never have, I never will. I prefer this challenge should be accepted by some of the foreigners who have been sprouting so long about American dollars of late, as I would rather fight them than any of my own countrymen. The Marquis of Queensbury rules must govern the contest, as I want fighting, not foot racing, and I intend to keep the championship where it belongs, in the land of the free and the home of the brave.

[Signed] JOHN L. SULLIVAN,

Champion of the World.

WHAT SLAVIN SAYS.

St. Louis, March 5.—Charles Mitchell and Frank Slavin are in the city, and to a reporter of the United Press, Slavin said: "I will not talk fight with John L. Sullivan until after I meet Jackson. I will succeed in defeating Peter will I think John will dance to my tune." Mitchell was asked if he intended to meet Sullivan. He replied:

"You can say that I will meet Sullivan any time during the months of September, October or November before the club offering the biggest purse and will make a side bet with him for $1,000 to $2,500, and will, if Sullivan insists upon it, agree to fight in a twelve-foot ring."

Extraordinary Surgical Operation.

STANTON, Va., March 4.—[Special.]—Great anxiety has been felt for several days about Baldwin Watt, the oldest son of Dr. Newton Watt. Monday last young Watt was on the street and attended the funeral of Dr. Cyrus Alexander. Going home he complained of a pain in his stomach, which rapidly increased in intensity and became so great as to threaten inflammation and peritonitis. It was ascertained that the trouble arose from some food he had eaten, and he was taken to the hospital, where he had lodged in a small duct of the bowels. Dr. Hunter McGuire was summoned by him, as the doctors decided that an operation must be performed or death would be inevitable. He came up last night, arriving here at 7 o'clock. The operation, which was one of the most difficult known to surgery, was performed last night by Dr. McGuire, and the young sufferer has been doing as well as could be hoped for under the painful circumstances of his case. His family and friends are hopeful, but it will be thirty-six hours before a final determination of the case can be had.

The county jail of Augusta has within its frowning walls three insane persons, two of whom have been in prison years and are the most remarkable case. They are English subjects, and, therefore, cannot be taken to any hospital nor almshouse, nor can they be allowed to go at large. They have been a charge to the Commonwealth for many years at $1 per day. Sheriff Watts has tried every effort to get these men off his hands. As a last resort he wrote to Sir Julian Pauley, British Minister at Washington, D. C., and received a reply from Mr. Herbert, secretary to Sir Julian, saying: "There are no funds at the disposal of this legation for such a case, and the British Government, therefore, that he is unable to assume the charge of William Davis." Sheriff Watts will next try Secretary Blaine, and by this means the international feature of the case may come up. The prisoners should be removed.

The King's Daughters' hospital board, at its meeting Tuesday last, decided to rent a building in which to open their hospital. They have $1,000 in cash and $2,000 in subscriptions to begin the new building.

Stanton will soon lose one of its most enterprising citizens by the removal of John P. Lippett, who will shortly move to Charleston, W. Va., to go into the wholesale notion business.

Harrison Pleased With His Reception.

PETERSBURG, Va., March 5.—[Special.]—President Harrison and party arrived here this morning at 10:30 o'clock on a special train over the Norfolk and Western railroad from Virginia Beach en route to Washington. The President, who is looking very pale, said that he had enjoyed his trip very much and that everything had been done to his comfort and pleasure. Mrs. Harrison also expressed herself as very much pleased.

Mr. F. H. Brockwell, a widely-known citizen of Prince George county, residing at the station on the Norfolk and Western railroad, was stricken with paralysis a few days ago. His condition to-day is considered improving.

Mr. Stephen Brown, a former hardware merchant of Petersburg, but now of Chattanooga, was paralyzed a day or two ago. Mrs. Brown is also very ill.

Master Carl Davis, aged about ten years, a son of Mr. R. B. Davis, a prominent lawyer here, made a very narrow escape this morning from being killed. He was horseback riding, and when composed Mr. George Beardsley, on West Washington street, the horse threw him and he was knocked senseless. His foot got caught in the stirrup and he was dragged for some distance before his foot was released. The injured boy was carried home, and this afternoon is resting easy.

The Republican state committee, of which General Mahone is chairman, will meet here some time next month.

The Appomattox river is still very high, and the water is over the levees.

The Commonwealth's attorney to-day instituted a chancery suit in the hustings court of this city in the name of the Commonwealth of Virginia against the executors of the late Isaac Robinson to recover taxes on personal property omitted to be listed by said Robinson for the years 1878, '79, '80, '81, '82, '83, '84, '85, '86, '87, '88, '89, '90 and '91. In addition to the regular tax the law imposes a heavy penalty for failure to list for taxation personal property, such as bonds, notes, stocks, money loaned on deed of trust, and the like. The tax to the city and State in the above suit will amount to several thousands of dollars. Mr. Robinson was one of Petersburg's wealthiest Hebrew citizens.

A Hairbreadth Escape.

ARLINGTON, Va., March 4.—Captain John S. Hays had a very thrilling escape here Thursday evening just as he started for his home in the Valley. Two double teams, one from a freight train and another from a stage, drove down the mountain road. Captain Hays had just reached the abrupt turn below the hotel gate, where the road lies between a narrow nearly perpendicular bank to the hotel fence on one side and a ravine on the other.
